

The democrats of Missouri are crying for Kildon.

It is a rather lonesome Friday when some poor fellow is not hanged on that day.

Mr. Tilden, with one foot in the grave and the other not far from the brink, is able to wag the democratic party.

Cincinnati gave a dramatic festival last week, and lost $30,000 by the enterprise. Dramatic festivals, riots and floods, are severely trying the temper of that city.

The blame and the Arthur factions in the coming national convention will undoubtedly be stubborn, and the dark horse brought into the convention as a compromise may be, and probably will be, Robert Lincoln.

The latest figures regarding the delegates to the national republican convention, classify their presidential preferences, as follows: For Arthur, 226; for Blaine, 186; for Edmunds, 49; for Logan, 47; for John Sherman, 23; for Joseph R. Hawley, 12; doubtful, 33.

There are many strange freaks in journalism. James Gordon Bennett's evening paper, The Telegram, has raised the name of Arthur and Lincoln, for president and vice president. It is said that the Herald will follow suit shortly. This will be the first time in the history of that great newspaper, that it ever supported a republican candidate for president.

There was a State oratorical contest in Kansas last week, and a young man named G. H. Mays, of Emporia, won the prize of $100. His splendid oration was entitled, "Washington, What of the Night." After young Mays got the money it was discovered that he stole the principal part of it from an oration once delivered from Colonel A. K. McClure, of the Pacific.

The Western Union telegraph company has been compelled, by growing competition and the prospect of a cheap postal telegraph company to be controlled by the government, to reduce its rates for night messages to 15 cents to all competing points east of the Missouri river, and one cent for each additional word. But this will be of no benefit to the interior towns and cities.

The change in the Blaine sentiment in New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, since 1880, can be seen from the following comparative table:

	For Blaine	For Hayes
New York	154	20
Pennsylvania	20	20
Ohio	20	20
Total	194	60

It will be seen from this that Blaine receives 39 votes more in these states than in 1880, but he loses in others, so that his strength will not differ much from that of four years ago.

The liquor licenses in the following cities in Wisconsin have been fixed at the figures given: In Appleton, $175; in Beloit, $500; in Florence, $200; in Marshfield, $150; in Baraboo, $150; Green Bay, $200; and Kenosha, $200. Milwaukee will likely fix the license there at $125. Madison and Janesville have highly favored the saloons by placing the license at $75; the lowest allowable under the statute. Antigo, Black River Falls and Stoughton refuse to grant licenses at any price.

A dispatch from Milwaukee says: "Mrs. Marion Kempster, the wife of the superintendent of the Northern Insane Asylum, at Oshkosh, is about to sue her husband, Dr. Walter B. Kempster, for a divorce. Dr. Kempster is a man of national reputation, and was one of the experts to prove Charles J. Guiteau's insanity. He is also an officer of the National Association of Insane Asylum Superintendents. The wife will charge, in the complaint, harsh and cruel treatment, incompatibility of temper and various other things."

It is more than likely that whoever is nominated by the republican national convention will be elected. The convention, nevertheless, should go soberly and thoughtfully about its work, and give the party a nominee for president who shall make success a certainty. There are such men in the republican party, and let the convention draw one of them out. Strong-headedness usually leads to wrong-headedness, and therefore it will do for any of the factions to be stubborn. Broad common sense, with a higher regard for the success of the party than for the advancement of any one man, will give the republicans a candidate that the democratic party can not possibly defeat.

The State Journal prints the following which contradicts a statement that appeared in the Gazette a few days ago: "The Janesville Gazette says: 'The State Journal at Madison, assuming to speak for General Fairchild, says he is not a candidate for president, etc.' It is not supposed our neighbor intended to misrepresent what the State Journal did say, but it has done so, all the same. In the article referred to by the Gazette, no reference was made, directly or indirectly, to the candidacy for the presidency, nor has the State Journal ever intimated at any time that General Fairchild was not a candidate for president. On the contrary, General Fairchild has been its candidate for that high office, for the past two years, and is so still; and whenever his name has been referred to in connection with that position, it has been in commending him as a proper person for the nomination."

Rock county has given the railway systems of this country some prominent and able officials. Robert U. Harris, now president of the Northern Pacific, was originally a Rock county boy, having lived in Beloit where he had a very humble place on a railway. William B.

Strong, president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, is another remarkable product of this county. A. A. Robinson, general manager and chief engineer of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, was reared at Edgerton. Walter S. Alexander, now superintendent of one of the Manitoba roads, was a Milton boy, and received his education there. George Sanborn used to be a brakeman and conductor on the Milwaukee road and lived in Janesville. He is now a division superintendent on the Milwaukee and St. Paul system in Iowa. James McCabe used to be a wild boy in Janesville when he was a brackman on the road. But he was sharp and ambitious, and as he grew in years he increased in discretion, and now he holds a very responsible position on the Northern Pacific. If any other railways in the United States want some valuable stock county timber, let them speak in time. There is some growing, and in a few years it will mature.

CRIME'S LATEST PHASE.

Confession of a Son Who Helped Hang His Father.

Horrible Developments in the Jefferson Lynching—Glorious Story—Why a Fearful Crime Was Committed.

ARLINGTON, La., April 29.—John Jellison has confessed, that he, John Smythe, and J. J. Wilson, his brother-in-law, killed his father, Hiram J. Jellison, near Hamilton, about midnight Friday. They traveled a distance of twenty miles, from the southern corner of Carroll county to the center of this (Arlington) county, murdered his father, and returned before daylight. The sons-in-law tied a handkerchief in a rope, purchased for the purpose two weeks before, and arranged it around the old man's neck. The son then seized it, and with the other two dragged the old man to a tree and hanged him.

At his preliminary examination, young Jellison reiterated the story, corroborating every detail of the results of the coroner's inquest, identified a rope found in the dead man's belt as John Smythe's, and a button found as that of the great coat of Wilson, worn by him that night. The coat was produced in evidence, with the button missing. Jellison was remanded to jail, where Smythe and the other two were held. Wilson, who has since the trial told the same story, and expects to hang for it. He does not fear the violence of a mob. He said the cause of the deed was the inhuman conduct of his father with his sister Lucy, Wilson's wife, in October, 1882. Jellison learned that his father had visited the person of his sister Lucy, and removed her from home. He then caused the facts to be published in a local paper. Jellison and wife, however, went to St. Louis, Mo., and the matter was allowed to drop. On Feb. 14, 1884, Wilson married Lucy, the daughter who had accused the deceased of incest with her. About three weeks since she told Wilson of the abuse of her father, and Wilson then commenced arrangements to murder the old man. He purchased a rope, and after conferring with Smythe and the other two, they set out on their journey. Wilson told him of their intentions. The latter refused to participate, but was told that if he did not accompany them they would be killed. The plans were laid nearly two weeks before the murder was committed. Young Jellison believes his father was guilty of incest with Wilson's wife.

Wilson and Smythe still protest their innocence, though Wilson says his wife had told him of her father's relations with her. He felt very bitter toward him, but had no hand in the murder. Wilson is 33 years old. Smythe is a good-natured fellow, but very reckless and easily led astray. Young Jellison says he took part in the murder under threats of violence, and knows now that if he and they were free he would be killed by them. The rest of the family, he said, were innocent of any complicity. J. J. Wilson was, he claimed, the leader in the whole affair. Wilson and Smythe have their trial Wednesday. No fears are entertained of mob violence until after the examination. The jail is strongly guarded.

THE SIX-DAYS' WALK.

Some of the Contestants Weakened—The Score.

NEW YORK, April 29.—For a wonder no one fell out in the six-day race at the Madison Square garden during the first twelve hours of the contest. Towards the afternoon, however, some of them exhibited unmistakable signs of weariness, and their limping strides plainly told of hidden blisters and aching limbs. Nearly every one of the contestants had a bad turn of the afternoon. The exception of Norrman, the little Scotchman, and Sammy Day, the latest English importation. Day is the happiest man in the party, and his naturally cheerful disposition, which has before won him many a prize, never deserted him. Fitzgerald, who is as energetic as a steam engine, and Norrman, who is as tough as a piece of iron, are the only two who are still in the race. The rest are all in the hospital, and are being treated by the best medical skill.

The contestants are as follows: Norrman, 135; Fitzgerald, 130; Norrman, 120; Panchet, 123; Vint, 115; Elson, 112; Thompson, 93; Burrell, 91; Indian, 94; Sullivan, 74; Campana, 71. Total amount of rest taken by each man in the twenty-four hours: Norrman, 7 hours 57 minutes; Burrell, 5 hours 30 minutes; Sullivan, 3 hours 58 minutes; Elson, 2 hours 23 minutes; Norrman, 2 hours 23 minutes; Vint, 2 hours 23 minutes; Panchet, 1 hour 10 minutes; Indian, 1 hour 10 minutes; Campana, 1 hour 10 minutes.

The score of the six-day race is as follows: Norrman, 135; Fitzgerald, 130; Norrman, 120; Panchet, 123; Vint, 115; Elson, 112; Thompson, 93; Burrell, 91; Indian, 94; Sullivan, 74; Campana, 71.

Extension of the British Trade. LONDON, April 29.—The secretary of the West India committee writes to The Standard and pointing out the importance of British trade of the motion pending in the house of commons extending the benefits of the "free trade" clause to the British colonies. He states that such extension will give English merchants trading with the British West Indies an equal footing with their American and other foreign competitors. The committee propose the treaty clauses extend only to European trade.

The Settlement Was for Butler. PHOENIX, R. I., April 29.—A convention of currency and labor reformers was held at the hall No. 35 Westminster street, Saturday night, to elect delegates to the national convention of that party, to be held at Indianapolis, May 25. The convention was the best attended of any ever held by that party in this city. The delegates chosen were B. G. Chase, William A. Sprague, C. Frederick Vinal and William D. Warner. The settlement of the convention was for Butler.

Prof. Barrett of St. Lawrence county, N. Y., a skilful and experienced physician, says that he has never known a case of cholera where the patient did not die before Dr. Barrett's medicine was known. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

PROTEST AGAINST CONFISCATION.

Citizens of New York Go for Hamilton's Government Without Gloves.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A large mass-meeting of many of the best-known citizens of New York was held at the Cooper Institute, under the direction of the Xavier union, the most influential religious society of this city. The object was to enter a formal and public protest against the contemplated seizure by the Italian government of the property of the Roman propaganda. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Edson, which among the many prominent gentlemen on the platform were: Hon. William R. Grace, Hon. Thomas R. O'Connor, Hon. Edward Reilly, Rev. Father Crowley, S. J., and a number of other well-known persons of political and religious influence. Letters of regret for non-attendance and of sympathy with the object of the meeting were read from Roscoe Conkling, August Belmont, Hon. Francis Kernan, Hon. E. Lewis, Hon. S. S. Cox, Hon. Frank H. Hunt, and Hon. Perry Belmont. Among the speakers were Mayor Edson, ex-Mayor Grace and Judge Daly. The latter gentleman spoke with much vigor and with a series of resolutions, which were adopted, and which also formed the "platform" of the Italian government. "It has been discovered that the great institutions of the church existing in its midst would have no owner should the papal government be abolished. These institutions are the property of God in every country, but it is not thought compatible with the safety of the Italian government that the Almighty should own so much real estate in Italy." "We protest indignantly against such a seizure of property taking place in the name of law." "We will call the attention of the whole civilized world to it, and if the young kingdom of Italy resists, we will hold it up to the eyes of the whole world, and we have never failed to speak our minds in the cause of oppressed justice and liberty." Several other gentlemen addressed the meeting, after which a series of resolutions were read and adopted, strongly denouncing the proposed course of the Italian government, and declaring that "President Arthur, Secretary Frelinghuysen and Minister W. W. Austin are entitled to the gratitude of the American people for their prompt and effective action in sustaining the rights and dignity of Americans, and in obtaining the exemption of the American colleges in Rome from confiscation and conversion." The meeting then adjourned.

The Plague-Pneumonia Bill.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 29.—The bill for the organization of a bureau of animal industry in the department of agriculture has made rapid progress in the senate. Its passage may almost surely be expected. During its consideration a motion to recommit was advocated by Bayard. He said that the bill contained direct invasion of the powers belonging to the states, in which the quarantine of animals is a matter of local concern, and that the bill was a direct violation of the constitution. The motion was rejected.

Ten senators voted for and ten against the motion, on a division. The yeas and nays were ordered and the result was as follows: Yeas, Bayard, Beck, Brewster, Coker, Farley, Gibson, Hampton, Harris, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Ransom and Vance. The yeas were ordered and the result was as follows: Yeas, Bayard, Beck, Brewster, Coker, Farley, Gibson, Hampton, Harris, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Ransom and Vance.

The bill as amended thus far provides for the organization of a bureau of animal industry in connection with the department of agriculture. This bureau is to be in charge of a complete veterinary surgeon at a salary of $3,000 a year. He is to have not more than twenty assistants. His duty is to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The bureau is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on these subjects as may be valuable to our agricultural and commercial interests. The committee is also authorized to appoint two competent stock-raisers or men familiar with questions pertaining to live stock, to assist in the investigation. The bill appropriates $100,000 for the necessary expenses of the bureau, which will be paid by the treasury. The bill also provides for the appointment of a committee of three members, one from each of the three departments of the interior, to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the country, and the cause of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases; to means necessary to prevent them and to collect such information on

Notice to Subscribers.

Subscribers to the Daily Gazette who do not receive their papers regularly, will confer a favor by reporting omissions promptly at the Gazette Printing Room.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Bargains in black silk at McKee & Bro's.

BEST BARGAIN EVER OFFERED—For sale, 50 acres of good land in Rock county at $37.50 per acre. Improvements worth $2,000. Inquire of J. G. Sax, Smith's block.

See the silk Jersey gloves for 50 cents at McKee & Bro's.

To RENT—House in third ward. Apply to Wheeler & Stevens.

McKee & Bro. have the newest and latest styles in summer Garments, made to their own order.

FOR RENT—A house on pleasant street, 4th ward. Suitable for a small family. A. E. BURMAN.

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE—One of $200, one of $350 and one of $1,800. WHEELER & STEVENS, Myers' new block.

The greatest variety of buggies and lumber wagons to be found in this city at S. L. James', and can be found for the least money.

Ladies wishing to select from the largest and finest stock of millinery in the city should go to McKee & Bro's.

Two fine residences on South Jackson street, for sale at bargain. Apply to Wheeler & Stevens, Myers' new block.

Four lots for sale in the first ward, the property of I. C. Brownell. Apply to Wheeler & Stevens.

No such line of elegant patterns of body Brussels carpets with borders to match ever shown in Janesville as has this day been received by M. C. Smith. Also some elegant samples of moquettes. The carpet trade is booming these days at the New York Cash store.

Clothing renovated or dyed at Devold's chemical steam dye house, 85 North Main street.

If you have silks, lace, and gloves, or clothing of any kind that has grease spots or become soiled in any way, you can have them made perfectly clean again by Devold's process of dry cleaning, call and see his work at 85 North Main street.

Bestwick & Sons have received the entire line of samples of a large cloak-house in Chicago. The variety is large, the styles new, and they are going to give the ladies the benefit of the reduction their assortment of spring wraps is by far the finest that can be found in the city.

M. C. Smith received this day five thousand yards of foulards, full yard wide, that we shall sell at ten cents a yard. Same quality goods that the boys around town are trying to get fifteen cents for.

FOR SALE—A nice residence lot, also 5 houses and lots in 1st ward; 6 houses and 8 lots in 2d ward; 5 choice residence lots on Ruger avenue, and 4 houses and lots in 3rd ward; 8 houses and lots in 4th ward.

Tonals for houses, rooms and business property secured free of charge. CAMPBELL & KILMELTER.

FOR SALE—CHATEAU—A fine house, 24 Main street, adjoining Judge Fitch's. DENNING & MURRAY.

We have 25 rolls of carpet and oil cloth which we will sell very cheap, as we must have the room. CHICAGO STORE.

Ethamine and Elder down at White Block.

Boys suits from $2 up, at Chicago store.

See add swan down.

Nice assortment of straw hats, at half millinery store prices at Chicago store.

Our prices on lace curtain goods, table linens and bed spreads are astonishing. CHICAGO STORE.

Bestwick & Sons' show of summer dress fabrics is immense. It comprises plain, stripe and plaid effects in chambray, seersuckers, zephyr cloths, etc. Something new, halibine, a figured seersucker is the latest novelty. Their embroidered zephyr chambray suits are very handsome and meet with ready sale.

JENKINS—Best assortment and lowest prices at Chicago store.

For your flower seeds go to Hein- street's.

Go to Eldredge's for best paint brushes in the city.

Epaulettes for cloaks at Bestwick & Sons.

Sure cure for mis-fits, by getting your clothes made by J. L. Ford.

Ladies, go to Eldredge's for your toilet articles.

Best mixed paints in the city at Eldredge's Guaranteed.

Magnificent display of ladies neck wear, collars, real lace, tidy ornaments etc., at White Block.

See! See! See!!!

I am prepared to furnish ice in any quantity during the coming season at $7 for 25 pounds daily from May 1, to October 1. For public places, 15 cents per hundred.

J. W. CARPENTER, Stop at Ogden house, Chicago, Illinois, corner Washington and Franklin streets, near Court house; $1.50 per day.

FOR SALE—A good lot, house and barn on Glen street, Second ward. Price $1,800. JONAS G. REXFORD.

Jackman's livery stable, on South Main street. Horses boarded for $3.00 per week.

40 acres of good tobacco land south of Blind Institute for sale in 5 or 10 acre lots and on easy terms. Apply to C. E. Bowles.

Fine residence formerly owned by Dr. Barrus, for sale cheap. Address W. L. Denning & Co.

Mixed paint all colors, in 15 and 25 cent packages, at Whiton & McLean's.

GLEANERS.

—Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, assemble this evening, in Castle hall.

—Janesville City Lodge, No. 90, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—Frank D. Marquiesse, of the C. & N. W. R. E., is home for a few days' visit. He will remove his family to Altoona, Wis. next week.

—Mr. E. N. Bolstead, railway agent at Dowsdown, was in the city spending Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bolstead.

—Prof. A. B. Severance will close his popular series of social parties, by a grand "calico party" in Apollo hall on tomorrow (Wednesday) evening.

—The Rev. O. M. Pullen has gone to Evansville to attend a meeting of the Madisonian convocation of clergy, where he may be addressed until Friday of this week.

—The broad and happy smile which now illuminates the countenance of Mr. Harry Merrill, is accounted for by the safe arrival of a fine baby girl, at his home, on Sunday.

—Attend the social in Apollo hall this evening, given by the ladies' aid society of Christ church. These socials are always of the most pleasant, and the ladies always gladly welcome their friends and guests.

—The members of W. H. Sargent Post, No. 20, Grand Army of the Republic, are preparing for a grand ball at the Rifles armory on the evening of May 5th, the proceeds to be devoted to the purchase of the relief fund.

—Revival meetings will be held every evening at the Congregational church. There will be an inquiry meeting at 7 o'clock in the lecture room, and preaching in the audience room at 7:45. All are cordially invited.

—Colonel Frederick Walter, of Monroe, a veteran of the Mexican war, who was announced to lecture at G. A. R. hall this evening, has been compelled to give up his lecture at this time, and will receive his friends in the Myers house parlors this evening.

—The lecture on prohibition, delivered by Mr. C. S. Ellsworth, the state lecturer of the Wisconsin prohibition amendment association, in the First M. E. church last evening, was attended by a fair sized audience, and the speaker was attentively listened to throughout.

—Mr. J. W. Sale Second assembly district delegate, and N. Smith, senatorial delegate to the state convention, went to Madison this afternoon. Among those who went along to witness the proceedings of the convention, were, O. H. Fethers, S. S. Rockwood, H. F. Bliss, Dr. Henry Palmer, and H. Richardson.

—The semi-annual inspection of the Bower City Rifles, Captain J. B. LaGrange, and the Janesville Guards' Captain J. B. Doe, Jr., took place at their respective armories last evening. The Rifles mustered thirty-four men and the Guards thirty. The inspections were satisfactory in every particular.

—There will be an excursion to Chicago from Janesville, on May 23th, the tickets to hold good for three days. This will give all an opportunity to attend the great May festival at the exposition building, where Nilsson and Materna will sing. The chorus will be composed of 1,000 voices, accompanied by an orchestra of 150 pieces. The fare will be very low, so that all who desire to go will have an opportunity, at exceedingly cheap rates.

—If there be a man living in the city of Janesville, or within a reasonable circuit of the corporate limits, who is the least skeptical concerning the business ability of our corps of insurance agents, just let the crowd hear that you have an insurance policy about to expire. If it isn't made lively around his habitation until the matter is settled, we are no judge of what it takes to make a first class insurance solicitor.

—The common council will hold an adjourned meeting to-morrow evening, for the purpose of taking upon the application, for license. Several of the aldermen have expressed themselves as against voting a license to certain ones now in the saloon business—one or two of the aldermen thus giving expression are of the low license party—and they will have, no doubt, an opportunity to vote "no," upon as many applications as they desire.

—Although the common council will not meet until to-morrow evening to act upon licenses, thirty-seven saloon keepers have already applied for the 875 license, to sell spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors in quantities less than one gallon to be drunk on the premises; eighteen of the above applicants also take out the $25 license, which is for the sale of such liquors in any quantity not to be drunk on the premises. It is now thought the number of saloons will exceed the number of last year, fifty-five.

—The school commissioners are just now endeavoring to make up their minds as to the amount of money they will ask the common council to appropriate for the city school this year. Last year the appropriation was $14,500, and some are of the opinion that this amount will be sufficient for the coming year. Others are in favor of asking for an appropriation of $15,000, giving as a reason that all the school buildings require more or less repairing. The high school building is said to be greatly out of repair. The outlay is a risky concern, and has so wrecked the roof of the building that it leaks on all four sides, injuring the high school room to a considerable extent. The two lightning rods on the building, while the points tower above the dome, are both disconnected, and are useless, if not dangerous to the building. The building has not been painted in ten years, and should it be deemed best to repair and preserve the building, it will require several hundred dollars expenditure. But it is already being agitated to allow this building to stand on its own merits, weathering the storms as best it may, that in due time another building will be erected in a more central location. The second ward building is also out of repair, and some of the commissioners are of the opinion that a new building should be provided in its place. The other buildings need more or less repairing, which will require considerable money to put them in proper order, and the commissioners, while they desire to ask for a sufficient appropriation to keep the schools running in good shape, do not wish to impose any undue expense upon the public.

ALL SOULS CHURCH.

A New Pastor Secured for "The Little Church Around the Corner."

The society of All Souls church in this city, which has been without a pastor since the resignation of Rev. J. L. Jones, which was accepted in 1880, have at last secured a new pastor to take charge of the church and society. Since the removal of Rev. Mr. Jones to Chicago, All Souls people have regularly held their Sunday school in the church, but with few exceptions, the pulpit has been unoccupied. Last winter Rev. H. Tamba Lynde, a student in the Methodist college, visited the society and held services in the church on several occasions, giving good satisfaction, but he not having finished his studies at that time, could not remain. Last month the society voted to extend a call to Rev. Mr. Lynde to become their permanent pastor, and the following reply, accepting the charge, has been received:

J. Harris, chairman of board of trustees of All Souls church, Janesville, Wis. DEAR SIR:—Having just received your letter of March 6th, I ask you to inform the board of trustees and the society, that I accept with all my heart and soul the call thus extended to me, hoping that God will help me do His work amongst you.

In order to pass through the ceremony of "graduating," I shall have to remain here till the middle of June, and will not be able to preach to you till Sunday, the 23d of June; I hope the trustees will accept this alteration in their call.

Respectfully regarding Janesville as my home, I hope that, owing to common work, aspirations and worship, you will all consider me your true friend. The work of the ministry is so exalted, demands so much knowledge of life and strength, that I should not dare undertake it, could I not feel that you will allow me to spend the pulpit more as a friend, subject to your own struggles and misgivings, than as "priest," more as one aspiring and struggling to attain, than as one "having attained." You must not expect of me that true and ideal ministry of the divine words, which calms and blesses, which we aspire towards. All that justifies me in accepting your call is love of righteousness, of God, and a burning desire to see perfect righteousness incorporated in human life. Truth and virtue and nobility of character made living realities amongst men; God revealed manifested in his children. In such love and such desire, I expect that we shall meet as true friends, and together do our best to make life nobler, purer, more God-like; to lighten the weight of sin, that presses us down and start the young out on life with deeper faith in righteousness, stronger convictions and nobler sentiments.

Let us meet as good friends, subject to the same trials and struggles, under the same necessity to advance, pressing on towards the same goal, and the power of God shall be with us and be ours.

H. TAMBE LYNDEN.

Mrs. Deitrich, of 16 Hudson street, New Haven, Conn., walked the floor all night suffering indescribable neuralgia pains in her head and teeth. "As soon as it was light in the morning," she writes, "my daughter started out to get something to relieve me. The doctor told her that Athlophoros was the best thing known. She got a bottle. After taking two doses the pain all left me as if by magic. I shall always keep Athlophoros in the house."

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Alcock's Plaster.

The Courts.

Business in the circuit court this forenoon was an action of replevin by Abraham Caniman against J. H. Taylor, to recover a quantity of oil seized by the defendant as the property of Farnley & Neschrode. B. F. Danwidder for the plaintiff and J. B. Doe, Jr., appeared for the defendant.

This afternoon the case of John H. Myers vs. Albert W. Longley, is on trial. Hyzer & Clark for the plaintiff and B. E. Eldredge & J. M. Whitehead for the defendant.

One poor, sickly tramp, run in by Officer McGinley, was given two days board at the county jail, by the municipal judge this afternoon.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Calluses, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures them, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by F. Shorer & Co.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Mrs. Finkelman's Compound.

Tobacco Sales.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending April 28, 1884:

1,384 cases, crop of 1883, Wisconsin Havana, at 22 to 30 cents.
322 cases, crop of 1882, Wisconsin Havana, at 25 to 30 cents.
451 cases, crop of 1882, Pennsylvania, at 15 to 18 cents.
150 cases, crop of 1881, Pennsylvania, at 18 to 12 cents.
200 cases, crop of 1880, Pennsylvania, at 11 to 12 cents.
100 cases, crop of 1882, New England, at 11 to 20 cents.
70 cases, crop of 1882, Ohio, at 12 to 15 cents.
Total cases, 2,655.

FOR DYSENTERY, Indigestion, Depression of Spirits and General Debility, the various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other Intermittent Fevers, the "FERRO-CHINA" PREPARED BY DR. CASWELL, of CALIFORNIA, made by CASWELL, LAMAR & CO., New York, and sold by all druggists in the best way, and for patients recovering from Fever and other sickness, it has no equal.

For dyspepsia, or any stomach derangement, no other remedy can be found so pleasant, prompt, and effective, as Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Cuticura Remedies.

For Sale.

A 6 horse power steam engine in complete running order; also a feed pump and feed heater, of the New York safety steam power company make, in first class order. Enquire of Coling & Wray.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Athlophoros.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The New Organization—M. L. Richardson, President, and A. O. Wilson, Clerk.

The Revised List of Teachers of the City Schools.

The school commissioners held their first meeting of the municipal year in the city clerk's office last evening. All the commissioners were present, as follows: C. E. Bowles, M. L. Richardson, Wm. Ruger, Thomas Madden and A. O. Wilson.

The first order of business was the election of president and secretary. The ballot for president resulted in the election of Commissioner M. L. Richardson, as follows:

On the ballot for clerk, Commissioner Bowles asked to be excused from voting, the ballot resulting unanimously in favor of Commissioner A. O. Wilson, who was declared elected clerk for the ensuing year.

At the suggestion of Superintendent B. W. Burton, Commissioner Bowles moved that Miss Sarah Andrews be transferred from the second intermediate department of the first district, to the first intermediate department of the second district. Adopted.

On motion of Commissioner Ruger, Miss Anna Frichard was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Miss Andrews.

On motion of Commissioner Ruger the salary of the clerk was fixed at two hundred and fifty dollars, the same as last year.

Several applications for positions as teachers were received and referred to the superintendent.

Commissioner Wilson was appointed to take the school census, at a salary of fifty dollars.

Several accounts were passed upon, and the board adjourned.

The following is a corrected list of the teachers in the several departments of the city schools:

R. W. Burton, principal of the high school and city superintendent.

First Assistant—Miss De Etta Howard.

Second Assistant—Miss Hattie Benedict.

Third Assistant—Miss Rosalia Hatfield.

First Grammar—Miss Carrie Zeining.

Second Grammar—Miss Julia Welsh.

Third Grammar—Miss M. A. Arms.

Fourth Grammar—Miss Helen M. Welsh.

FIRST DISTRICT.

Second Grammar—Miss Jennie Metcalf.

Fourth Grammar—Miss Anna Cummings.

First Intermediate—Miss Kate Nelson.

Second Intermediate—Miss Anna Frichard.

First Primary—Miss Emma Josely.

Second Primary—Miss Belle Holmes.

SECOND DISTRICT.

First Intermediate—Miss Sarah Andrews.

Second Intermediate—Miss Jessie Reesague.

First Primary—Miss Franc H. Whitcomb.

Second Primary—Miss Minnie Drummond.

THIRD DISTRICT.

First Intermediate—Miss Clara B. Drake.

Second Intermediate—Miss Clara Ormsby.

First Primary—Miss T. Maud Sykes.

Second Primary—Miss Lillie Gadden.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

First Intermediate—Miss Bertha Styles.

Second Intermediate—Miss Emma Clark.

First Primary—Miss Lizzie Grove.

Second Primary—Miss Mary Conway.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

First Intermediate—Miss Jennie Paterson.

First Primary—Miss Mary Bernard.

Second Primary—Miss Minnie Clark.

CENTRAL DISTRICT.

Third Grammar—Miss Minnie Pulker.

Fourth Grammar—Miss Lizzie Peterson.

First Intermediate—Miss Grace Draper.

Second Intermediate—Miss Martha Wiley.

First Primary—Miss Gertrude Zeining.

Second Primary—Miss Carrie Riker.

The summer term of school will commence on Monday.

Giles' Glycerine Salve.

The best on earth, can truly be said of Giles' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds, and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, tetter, and all skin eruptions. Try this wonder healer. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by Stearns & Baker.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Down's Balm.

"Delavan" as the Champion Holman.

There are many new attractions connected with the Burr Robbins show this season, and where there are so many curiosities, some of the really meritorious attractions and displays of skill will in many cases, escape notice by the multitude who will flock to the cities to see the grand street parade during the show season. Among the many noted artists or professional men attached to this great exhibition is Mr. Spencer Alexander, better known here at home as "Delavan." Mr. Alexander is "no good" as a performer in the ring, nor can he be called a success in vaulting over all the horses, camels and white elephants which can be crowded under a circus tent; but what he can do, as well, if not better than any other man connected with a show, is that of driving a circus team of six, eight, ten, or any number of horses. He is the "champion" in this business, and it was really worth the price of admission to any show to see him driving a team of eight white horses through our streets to-day. The fancy turns he made with this team, and the perfect ease with which he managed and controlled each horse was a wonder to all spectators. This is one of the many attractions connected with the Burr Robbins show that is not announced on the show bills, but is one that will catch the eyes of all horsemen where the show exhibits. As a reinster, "Delavan" is certainly a success. The exhibition, will make its first public parade on Thursday.

The Run Does Move.

The Rev. J. Jasper (colored), who insists that "the sun does move," is so popular in Richmond, Va., that when a stranger inquires the way to his church, the directions are to take a car to a certain corner and then follow the crowd. The evidence of success of modern discoveries being their popularity, "follow the crowd" to your drug store and get a bottle of Biglow's Positive cure, which cures coughs, colds, consumption and all throat and lung diseases speedily, thoroughly and permanently. Trial bottles free of Stearns & Baker.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Parker's Balm.

A good name is more valuable than gold, so are Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. Price 25 cents. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

Johnstown.

Most of the seedling is done of the small grains and the farmers will be following the corn ground this week, but we shall not want to plant until the weather is a little warmer.

Mrs. Nickerson, who has been under the doctors care for several weeks is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Morton is failing with but little hope of recovery.

Through all the various scenes of life many bright things appear from time to time to cheer and make you glad. Mrs. A. M. Carter has received a large box of trailing arbutus, through the mail, all in full bloom, from her sister in Connecticut.

The tobacco raisers are getting anxious for warmer weather so that the plants can show better appearance, as but a few have any in sight.

You will find all medicines advertised in this paper at Prentice & Evenson's opposite postoffice, Janesville. Medicines not in liquid form sent by mail. Prescriptions and receipts prepared from pure and fresh drugs, cheaper than at any other reliable druggists in the county.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Diamond Dyes.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 41 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy, with east wind. At one o'clock p.m. the register was 64 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago, the register was 34 and 58 degrees above zero.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, 2nd, Shilo's Medicines.

We have just received from the New York Importers, a number of very elegant French pattern hats and bonnets; they will well repay an inspection, as they are undoubtedly the finest goods to be seen in the city; we have but a limited number, and they cannot be duplicated. We shall offer them at very reasonable prices and will, if necessary, adjust the trimmings to suit purchasers.

New York Savings Stone.

THE GLEN FALLS FIRE. GLEN FALLS, N. Y., April 23.—The fire broke out in Union hall building at 6 o'clock a.m., and at 12 o'clock was under control. Little of the opera house, the Glen Falls opera house, the Presbyterian church and fifteen business houses were totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $150,000 to $200,000.

Aid for Jewish Immigrants. VIENNA, April 23.—The Vienna branch of the Jewish alliance has voted a large sum of money to the Montefiore Aid society, of New York city, to be used in aiding Jewish emigrants who take refuge in the United States from Russian persecution.

Death of an Aged Editor. KINGSTON, Ont., April 23.—Dr. E. J. Barker of The City Register, died at the age of 55. He was considered the father of the Canadian press.

Allen's Brain Food botanical extract strengthens the Brain and positively cures Nervous Debility, Nervousness, Headache, unnatural losses, and all weakness of Generative System; it never fails. $1.00 & 50c. Druggists, or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First avenue New York city.